NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE STATISTICAL REPORT

July 1, 1968-June 30, 1969

I am happy to report that for the conference year July 1, 1968 through June 30, 1969 there has been a steady increase along all lines, except in the number of churches organized. However, we are happy to welcome into our fellowship the Ahoskie First Pentecostal Holiness Church at Ahoskie, North Carolina. The Reverend Lester Jarrett and his fine group of people came into our church with a 100% vote. The Reverend Tim B. Henry, Conference Evangelism Director, at my request went to Ahoskie on June 15 to preach and receive this church into the North Carolina Conference.

We have shown a decrease of 2 in the number of churches; first, because of their location and lack of people to draw from to build a congregation, and because of such an exodus from the rural area to the city. However, through effort on the part of all concerned we have been able to save most of these members for our church by transferring their name to the given city church. The Evangelism Department has worked very hard this year in assisting the smaller churches along all lines—such as relocating the church, searching and securing proper property deeds, supplementing pastors, and numerous helps. Further in this report you will see results in the statistical report.

The support of the conference and general financial program by minister and church has been most encouraging. Several new churches have been built along with parsonage and educational building. Many have remodeled, painted and refurnished the sanctuary with new furniture. The physical plant has made a noted increase, for which we are thankful.

Many times we are inclined to measure our progress with the physical, financial or secular; but I believe God is most interested in the spiritual. Our report will reveal that the people of the North Carolina Conference are also interested in the spiritual. It was the month of April when the entire church participated in a week of prayer and fasting for each district and church. Results were souls being saved, sanctified and filled with the baptism of the Holy Ghost. The revival did not stop there, it continued through three of the most fruitful weeks of Youth Camp I have ever attended. Reverend Wiley Clark, Christian Education Director, and the C. E. Board along with each counselor and teacher testify of the same.

Our C. E. Department is doing a splendid work among our Sunday Schools and Lifeliners. The youth of our church are showing the greatest interest that I have seen in years. Brother Wiley Clark is giving his all for this department as the report will show.

The Woman's Auxiliary, as always, speaks for itself. These ladies are on the move for God. They are ever doing for a good cause as their report will show. To Mrs. Hollon Davenport, the Auxiliary Board and each local auxiliary, may I say that I personally thank you for the good work done in the North Carolina Conference this year and quadrennium.

Following you will see the financial and statistical report of this conference along with this quadrennium. In both church and minister it is revealed that we have come a long way. There are more churches and ministers paying tithe monthly, there are more churches putting their tithe in the proper place than ever before, and it shows.

With your continued help we can accomplish many things in the future for God.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

MR. CHAIRMAN AND CONFERENCE MEMBERS:

I am happy to report that in times like these, when men are trying to deny the existence of God, that I know without a doubt that He does exist, He lives, He is real, for I know Him as my Saviour, Sanctifier, Baptizer, Healer and soon coming King.

This conference year seemingly has been a very short one. The reason possibly is because I have been very busy. It has been my privilege to visit many of our churches for various reasons.

In my work I have driven 31,000 miles—most of which was for the conference. I have conducted 27 district conferences, presided over monthly conference board meetings, Christian Education and Evangelism board meetings. I served as manager of the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings. I attended the King Memorial Lectures, 3 Eastern Education board meetings, 2 World Missions board meetings in Franklin Springs, Georgia. I attended the G. B. A. meeting and Lifeliners Convention in Bakersfield, California. My tithe and conference obligations are paid up to date.

I have preached for 11 homecomings, conducted several one-week revivals, dedicated 6 churches, 1 parsonage, conducted 9 funerals,

2 weddings, and I ground breaking for a new church. Almost every Sunday I was in one or more of our churches for services.

In my office work I have endeavored to do my best. In this there have been many letters to write, telephone calls, personal interviews with ministers, deacons, church delegates and laymen. I have served as Editor and Business Manager of the Evangel. I have endeavored to carry out all church finances in a business manner.

In our Ministerial Church and Extension Loan Fund, Insurance, Superannuation, Church and Ministerial finance we have been able to show a noted increase. This I feel is due to each feeling his individual obligation to God and the conference program.

In all my work I have had a deep settled peace that I was serving in God's will for my life. Needless to say, there have been anxious and perplexing moments when faced with the need of our churches today; when there seems to be a lack of dedication on the part of some who seem to be allured by the excitement of the secular.

In this report let me make an appeal to every minister: Let us take inventory of our vows to God, the Bishop and the church. Let us renew our covenant and together join hands and march triumphantly holding the banner of Holiness high—by preaching, singing and living a life unstained by this present world. Let it not be said of us: "I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none." Let us stand firm and be found, busy in His vineyard when He comes or calls.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

God in His great love and wisdom, who does all things well and never makes a mistake has promoted five of our fine ministers to that place He went to prepare for them, that where He is, they are now also.

Brother S. T. Harris joined the conference in 1928 and retired in 1955. A real pioneer of Pentecostal Holiness truths, he pastored eleven churches and was proclaiming the message of "Holiness" on Homecoming Day at the Merritts Chapel Church when he was fatally stricken in the pulpit. His strict convictions of holiness and dedication to God, his church and family remain as a beacon for our footsteps in a generation of uncertainties.

Brother Joe L. Russell, Sr. joined the conference at Goldsboro in 1940. He organized the Peniel Church and pastored a number of our other churches including the Tabernacle Church which he served until the time of his passing. His deep consecration, his firm convictions, and personal Christian devotion served as a landmark of the pioneer spirit which has contributed to the greatness of our church and conference. He left us an example of faith, love and loyalty to his God, his church and his family that will inspire us for many years to come.

Sister I. S. Taylor joined the conference in 1942 and served faithfully and well in a number of pastorates. She was dependable and loyal to the end. Her willingness to serve in any capacity she could and her devotion to the Lord and His cause and to that of her family will long be remembered.

Sister Effie Williams came into the conference in 1955. She served her church well, both as pastor and evangelist. Though handicapped by poor health in her last years she faithfully served the Selma church as pastor until the Lord called her home. Her devotion as a minister, wife and mother will continue to be an inspiration to all who knew her.

Sister L. A. Phillips united with the conference in 1966 and paspastored the Raeford church until the time of her death. Although she was hampered by poor health most of this time, she worked untiringly to help build this church. She loved the Lord, her family and her church and remained faithful to the end.

We, with sacred memories and great anticipation await the day of reunion. We extend to the family of each of these ministers our deepest sympathy and request that a copy of this report be sent to each family.

We recommend that the conference stand for a moment of silent prayer as a tribute to these ministers and that afterwards the Conference Superintendent lead us in prayer.

Respectfully submitted: H. D. Marshburn, Chairman; Timothy G. Creel, Forrest L. Daniels, W. G. Batten.
